

EVERY DAY

WITH RACHAEL RAY

rachaelraymag.com

WINES WITH HEART

Valentine's Day doesn't always go according to plan, but the right wine can help. —TED LOOS

SEEKING A COMMITMENT

The saucy label on this medium-weight red, made from zweigelt grapes (Austria's pinot noir), will bring him around in no time. Serve it with a big pork chop.

Turn Me Red (Austria, $15)

CELEBRATING SINGLEHOOD

Drink to your independence with this chic and girly sparkler. Its unusual pink-orange color is reminiscent of a sunrise—ideal for toasting your future.

Pink by Yellowglen (Australia, $12)

SURVIVING A SPLIT

Throw on Gloria Gaynor and open this chardonnay—its label is the wine equivalent of a breakup song, and its citrus notes are great for tonight's takeout sushi.

Smashed Grapes Chardonnay 2005 (California, $8)

HANGING WITH THE GIRLS

Make the most of ladies' night with a fruity cabernet. Its soft cherry notes pair amazingly with the ultimate comfort food: pasta.

Napa Girl Cabernet Sauvignon 2003 (California, $18)

Rise and Shine!

Fast new ways to start your day

! Dinner for $10 or less • 30-Minute Meals for two

Winter Escapes • Chocolate! Sweets for You & Yours

This appeared in the February 2007 Issue of EVERY DAY WITH RACHAEL RAY

159 RECIPES AND TIPS

Weekends

Lazy suppers
Get-togethers
Breakfast in bed

REGAINS YOU'LL LOVE • AMERICA'S BEST POTATO CHIP

rachaelraymag.com

Imported By Wein-Bauer, Inc. 10600 Seymour Ave. Franklin Park, IL. 60131
www.turnmeredwine.com