CALLING ALL WHITE WINE DRINKERS

Still can't get into red wines? Wein-Bauer, Inc. Owner and CEO Manfred Bauer has a new product just for you. The Glenview wine seller has brought to the market a personal favorite – a newly discovered grape called Zweigelt from Austria – that can be found in his new Turn Me Red wine, which promises to bring white wine drinkers into the red wine drinking fold. Turn Me Red is imported exclusively by Wein-Bauer. It's available at local fine liquor stores. Visit turnmeredwine.com or www.weinbauer.com.
